

International Association of School Librarianship School Libraries Worldwide

School Libraries Worldwide is the official peer-reviewed research journal of the International Association of School Librarianship, published twice yearly, in January and July, on the IASL website [online-only]. ISSN 1023-9391

Editor: Dianne Oberg, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, Canada

Volume 16, Number 2, July 2010
Issues for the Next Decade

Table of Contents

Editorial. Dianne Oberg, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, Canada

§ Video Games as Digital Learning Resources: Implications for Teacher-Librarians and for Researchers. Teddy Moline, Faculty of Education, University of Alberta, Canada

Shared Vision: A Key to Successful Collaboration? Kirsty Williamson, Caulfield School of Information Technology, Monash University and School of Information Studies, Charles Sturt University, Australia; Alyson Archibald and Joy McGregor, School of Information Studies, Charles Sturt University, Australia

Further Understanding of Collaboration: A Case Study of How It Works with Teachers and Librarians. Patricia Montiel-Overall, School of Information Resources and Library Science, The University of Arizona, USA

School Library Impact Studies and School Library Media Programs in the United States. Allison G. Kaplan, School of Library and Information Studies, University of Wisconsin–Madison, USA

Features of Elementary School Library Poetry Collections: A Collection Analysis Study. Elizabeth L. Enochs, School of Library and Information Studies, Texas Woman's University, USA

Leopards on the Move: School Libraries in Europe. Luisa Marquardt, Faculty of Education, University "Roma Tre", Italy

§ Public access article