

International Association of School Librarianship School Libraries Worldwide

School Libraries Worldwide is the official peer-reviewed research journal of the International Association of School Librarianship, published twice yearly, in January and July, on the IASL website [online-only]. ISSN 1023-9391

Editors: Dr. Nancy Everhart and Dr. Marcia Mardis, School of Library and Information Science, College of Communication & Information, The Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL, USA

Volume 19, Number 2, July 2013

Story: Global Reflections on the Role of Story and Narrative in School Librarianship

Table of Contents

Story: International common ground in school librarianship [Editorial]. Nancy Everhart, Florida State University, USA

§ Stone Soup: A story about using story for research. Sue Kimmel, Old Dominion University, USA

The use of self-story as a pedagogical tool in a meta-cognitive exercise to support children in understanding their material choices in the school library. Linda Z. Cooper, Queens College, USA

Language learning through a lens: The case for digital storytelling in the second language classroom. Lucy Santos Green, Georgia Southern University, USA

Illustrating the Narrative Process through Career Stories. Stephanie A. Jones, Georgia Southern University, USA

Creating, viewing, and assessing: Fluid roles of the student self in digital storytelling. Rebecca J. Morris, University of North Carolina-Greensboro, USA

Teachers'/students' library use and reading habits in Ido local government area, Ibadan, Nigeria. Adetoun A. Oyelude, University of Ibadan, Nigeria

§ Public access article