BOOK DONATIONS 2015

Peace Corps. (2012). Sources of donated books for schools and libraries

A helpful document with questions to ask before commencing a library development project, tips for book donors and numerous sources of book donations.

Book Aid International
This organization works in partnership with libraries in Africa and send substantial numbers of books each year.

Books for Africa
Books for Africa coordinates projects for funding book shipments to Africa.

CODECAN Book donation programs
Canadian NGO working in Africa. CODECAN Blog

Directory of book donation programs
A directory created in 2006 of many book donation programs.

Hope Worldwide Australia
This organisation works in PNG providing medical care but also has run annual Book Drives resulting in over 2 million books being distributed by the National Library of PNG to begin school libraries. More information can be found on Hope Worldwide’s School Library Program. It was funded by NZAID and is currently seeking funding to operate again. There is also an IT Program to provide computers in schools.

International Book Project (IBP) – USA.
US NGO supporting literacy in the USA and developing world; Sponsoring book shipments.

Ranfurly Library Service – Rotary, RAWCS Eastern Region
Ranfurly is a "book-aid charity" in Australia sending books to Pacific nations and Australian Aboriginal communities. More than 2.5 million books have been sent since 1986.